- (h) The temperature shall be less than or equal to 120 degrees Fahrenheit.

If at any time, gas tendered to Transporter at a Receipt Point fails to conform to the quality specifications, Shipper shall notify Transporter promptly of such deficiency and follow notification in writing. If gas delivered to the Delivery Point(s) fails to conform to the quality specifications, Shipper shall notify Transporter promptly of such deficiency and follow notification in writing. In both instances, the deficiency shall be remedied within a reasonable period of time. Neither Transporter nor Shipper shall be required to receive gas that fails to conform to the quality specifications.

3. MEASUREMENT

3.1 Measurement Facilities

Transporter, at its sole cost and expense, shall provide for the continued operation and maintenance of gas measuring facilities to be located at the Receipt Points and Delivery Points. Such facilities shall be constructed and gas volumes shall be measured by (1) orifice metering tubes at the Delivery Point(s) installed in compliance with the requirements prescribed in Gas Measurement/Committee Report No. 3 of the American Gas Association approved standards measurement, including the appendix thereto, and any subsequent revision thereof acceptable to Shipper and Transporter or their designees and (2) ultrasonic meters at the Receipt Point(s) installed in compliance with the requirements prescribed in Gas Measurement/Committee Report No. 9 of the American Gas Association approved standards measurement, including the appendix thereto, and any subsequent revision thereof acceptable to Shipper and Transporter or their designees.

3.2 Check Metering Equipment - Shipper shall have the right, at its sole option and expense, to install and operate check metering equipment downstream of the Receipt Points and the Delivery Points.

3.3 Gas Measurement and Equipment - Reading, calibration and adjustment of each party's meters and related equipment shall be performed solely by that party. Each party, however, shall provide the other with seven (7) Days prior written notice of all reading, calibration and adjustment, and representatives of the other party may be present for such events.

3.4 Measurement at the Receipt Points - At the Receipt Points, Transporter will comply with the provisions for gas measurement set forth in the General Terms and Conditions of the tariffs of the Delivering Pipelines. Transporter's measurement equipment, which is operated by the Delivering Pipelines, will be used as the primary billing meters at the Receipt Points.

3.5 Measurement at the Delivery Points - Each item of equipment shall be calibrated to provide an accuracy of plus or minus five-tenths of one percent of full scale.

3.6 Resolving Differences at the Delivery Point(s) - If the testing and calibration performed at the Delivery Point(s) pursuant to Section 3.3 show that any item of equipment installed by Transporter does not conform to the accuracy requirements of

Section 3.5, all previous readings of that item of equipment shall be corrected to zero error for any period which the equipment was known to be in error. If this period is not known, the correction shall be made for a period extending back one-half of the time elapsed since the last testing and calibration performed pursuant to Section 3.3. During any period when any item of equipment installed at the Delivery Point(s) by Transporter is inoperable or known to be in error, the measurements provided by the corresponding item of equipment installed by Shipper, if any, shall be used if determined to be accurate in accordance with Section 3.5. If neither item of equipment is operable or accurate, or available in the case of Shipper's equipment, the specification to be measured shall be determined by the parties hereto on the basis of the best data available using the first of the following methods which is feasible:

- (a) By correcting the error if the percentage of error is ascertainable by calibration, test, or mathematical calculations; or
- (b) By comparing deliveries made during the preceding period under similar delivery conditions when the equipment was registering accurately.

3.7 Measurement of Moisture

Transporter may install on-line at the Delivery Point(s) the most accurate and reliable technology currently available at reasonable cost to continuously monitor the moisture content of the gas being delivered by Transporter. Moisture content monitoring equipment installed by Transporter, if any, will have the capacity for an alarm, which may be installed by Shipper, to inform Shipper whenever the moisture content of the gas being delivered to Shipper exceeds the maximum designated by the Tariff specifications referenced in Section 2.1. If Transporter does not install moisture monitoring equipment as permitted by this section, Shipper's moisture monitoring equipment located on-line at the Delivery Point(s) will be used to determine the moisture content of gas being delivered by Transporter, if that equipment has been properly installed and maintained and is registering correctly. Shipper will promptly notify Transporter if the moisture content of gas being delivered to Shipper exceeds the maximum designated by the Tariff specifications referenced in Section 2.1.

Transporter's gas chromatograph installed at the Receipt Points shall be used to measure the gross calorific heating value, carbon dioxide, oxygen and nitrogen levels in the gas stream. The standard for calculation of gross calorific heating value, specific gravity and compressibility of gas mixtures from compositional analysis shall be Gas Processors Association Standard No. 2172-84, as amended or supplemented from time to time. If Shipper accepts delivery of any gas that contains moisture in excess of the limit for dry gas designated by the specifications referenced in Section 2.1, as determined in accordance with Section 3.7, the gross calorific heating value will be adjusted to reflect the actual water vapor content of the gas accordingly for billing purposes.

In the event gas is received into Transporter's pipeline system from an interconnect other than the Receipt Points defined herein, Shipper may request and, upon such request, Transporter shall be required to install an automatic sampling device to measure the hydrogen sulfide levels in the gas. The hydrogen sulfide content of the gas shall be determined in accordance with the Gas Processors Association Standard for such determination then in effect, and if there is no such standard in effect, by a method generally used and accepted in the industry and agreeable to both Transporter and Shipper.

- 3.9 Determination of Total Delivered MMBtu - The total number of MMBtus delivered shall be determined by multiplying the delivered gross calorific heating value, as determined in Section 3.8, by the total volume of gas as determined in Section 3.1. If the total MMBtu results obtained by use of Transporter's equipment, as specified in Section 3.1 and 3.8, differ by one percent or more from the results obtained by use of Shipper's check metering equipment, then Transporter and Shipper shall each be required to calibrate its measurement equipment. If such calibrations indicate that Transporter's measurement equipment is within the tolerance levels set forth in Section 3.5, then Transporter's measurement equipment shall continue to be used. If such calibrations indicate that Transporter's measurement equipment is not within the tolerance levels set forth in Section 3.5 and that Shipper's measurement equipment is within the tolerance levels set forth in Section 3.5, then Shipper's measurement equipment shall be used. If such calibrations indicate that neither parties' measurement equipment is within the tolerance levels set forth in Section 3.5, then the provisions of Section 3.6 shall be followed to resolve any measurement inaccuracies.

- 4.3 Any change in a daily scheduled quantity implemented during the Day shall only be recognized pro rata to the fraction of the Day remaining at the time the change is implemented. Changed daily scheduled quantity shall not exceed an amount equal to Shipper's Transportation Quantity multiplied by the fraction of the Day remaining at the time the changes are implemented, nor less than zero at any point in time. Transporter shall be under no obligation to accept such revisions for Shipper nominations made under Transporter's Interruptible Transportation Service.
- 4.4 Pursuant to NAESB Standards 1.3.9, 1.3.11, and 1.3.13: All nominations, including Intraday Nominations, shall be based on a daily quantity; thus, an intraday nominator need not submit an hourly nomination. Intraday Nominations shall include an effective date and time. The interconnected parties shall agree on the hourly flows of the Intraday Nomination, if not otherwise addressed in the Transportation Agreement or Tariff. Intraday Nominations can be used to request increases or decreases in total flow, changes to receipt points, or changes to delivery points of scheduled Gas. Intraday Nominations do not rollover (i.e., Intraday Nominations span one day only). Intraday Nominations do not replace the remainder of a standing nomination. There is no need to renominate if an Intraday Nomination modifies an existing nomination.
- 4.5 Shipper Prioritization of Nominated Quantities - If Shipper elects to nominate quantities of Gas to be received by Transporter from one or more upstream parties at the Receipt Point, Shipper shall provide the priority, method, and extent to which each nominated receipt quantity from a particular upstream party should be reduced in the event that, due to Transporter's allocation of Available Capacity for Transportation services, all nominated receipts cannot be scheduled.
- Shipper prioritization of nominated quantities must be consistent with the terms of this FERC Gas Tariff and such prioritization will be honored to the extent that Transporter reasonably determines such prioritization is operationally feasible.
- 4.6 Delegation of Nomination Authority to Agent - A Shipper may delegate to any third party the responsibility for submitting nominations and receiving confirmations or performing other administrative duties under any effective agreement, subject to the following conditions:
- (a) Any designation of a third party as agent, or any change in such designation must be provided in writing to Transporter at least two (2) Business Days prior to the requested effective date of the designation.

- (b) The written designation must specify any limits on the authority of the agent, including any time limit for the designation. Transporter may reject any Shipper's request to delegate responsibilities if the limitations on the designation would impose undue administrative burdens on Transporter.
- (c) Transporter will rely on communications from a Shipper's agent for all nomination purposes, except to the extent the designation is expressly limited. Communications by Transporter to such agent will be deemed notice to Shipper.
- (d) Any third party may administer multiple Transportation Agreements as the agent for one or more Shippers, but the agent must make nominations and otherwise administer and account separately for each Transportation Agreement.

4.7 Shipper Designated as Point Operator

Transporter's Shipper shall, prior to the effective date of any Transportation Agreement, be designated and act as Point Operator for the scheduling and balancing of gas flows at the Receipt Points to be delivered into the Transporter's pipeline. Transporter and Shipper agree that Shipper shall continue to serve as Point Operator at the Receipt Points for all gas quantities transported under such Agreement, and that Transporter shall provide all necessary notices to the Delivering Pipelines to effectuate such designation. Such designation of Shipper as Point Operator shall continue in full force and effect throughout the term of such Agreement, provided that Shipper remains the only Shipper on Transporter's pipeline. In the event Transporter subsequently begins transporting gas over the pipeline for other shippers, subject to any limitations set forth in such Agreement, Transporter shall take over the responsibilities of Point Operator at the Receipt Points, but shall coordinate its activities so as not to impair the nomination and balancing of the existing Shipper's gas quantities transported under the Agreement with such Shipper.

- 4.8 Imbalances - The quantities of gas tendered at the Receipt Point(s) and the quantities of gas delivered at the Delivery Point(s) shall remain in continuous balance or as near thereto as practical. If Transporter or Shipper determines that an imbalance exists, both Transporter and Shipper shall use diligent efforts to correct the imbalance as soon as practical. Transporter will net Shipper's imbalances on a monthly basis across all of Shipper's Transportation Agreements. Shipper may trade any imbalances incurred under this Section 4 with other Shippers on Transporter's system, provided the imbalances to be traded are off-setting. Trades will be deemed completed upon notification to Transporter.

Transporter shall provide Shipper such notice of such curtailment as is reasonable under the circumstances. Routine repair and maintenance is not deemed an emergency situation or an unexpected loss of capacity and will be scheduled by Transporter in a manner to avoid, wherever possible, the disruption of confirmed service.
- 5.2 If due to any cause whatsoever Transporter is unable on any day to schedule or deliver the quantities of Gas nominated by Shippers, service shall be curtailed in the following order:
- (a) first, interruptible service provided pursuant to Rate Schedule IT, curtailed by price from lowest to highest, except curtailment will be pro rata on nominated quantities among Shippers paying the same rate, and recognizing that Shippers paying the maximum rate will be curtailed last;
 - (b) second, firm service provided pursuant to Rate Schedule FT. Transporter shall curtail on a pro rata basis on nominated quantities among all Shippers receiving this service.

Receipts and deliveries of Gas under more than one contract and/or Rate Schedule shall be allocated in accordance with any agreement as may exist between Transporter and the Delivering Pipeline(s). 8.1 Overrun Charge

(a) Authorized Overrun Charge

If Shipper requests Transporter to deliver quantities of Gas in excess of Shipper's applicable Transportation Quantity, and Transporter agrees, Shipper shall be subject to an Overrun Charge in addition to the applicable reservation and commodity charges and any balancing charges pursuant to this section, equal to the 100% load factor maximum rate applicable to the service Shipper receives as specified in Shipper's Transportation Agreement per each MMBtu of Gas taken in excess of Shipper's Transportation Quantity.

(b) Unauthorized Overrun Charge

If Shipper exceeds its Transportation Quantity without the approval of the Transporter, Shipper shall be subject to an Overrun Charge in addition to the applicable reservation and commodity charges and any balancing charges pursuant to this section, equal to $10 per MMBtu for each MMBtu of Gas taken in excess of Shipper's Transportation Quantity.

8.2 A Shipper must comply with an OFO issued pursuant to Section 12 within the time period set forth therein, unless the Shipper is able to demonstrate that such compliance is prevented due to a Force Majeure event as defined in Section 14.1. In all instances, including Force Majeure, the Shipper shall make a good faith effort to comply with any such OFO, including seeking waivers of any contractual limits with third parties or modifications of operating conditions on third party systems. Shipper shall notify Transporter immediately if it believes that it is excused from compliance with the OFO for any reason, and shall provide Transporter with documentation sufficient to support its basis for non-compliance.

8.3 If a shipper fails to comply with an OFO, it shall be subject to (a) a penalty of $25.00 per MMBtu for any volume of gas by which it deviated from the requirements of the OFO, and (b) any overrun or other charges that may be applicable under Section 8. A Shipper shall not incur any charges or penalties if such charges or penalties would not have been incurred but for Shipper's compliance with an OFO. 9.1 Payment Terms

On or before the tenth (10th) Business Day of each Month, Transporter shall deliver invoices to Shipper for its services in transporting gas under the applicable Transportation Agreement. All invoices shall be sent to Shipper by facsimile transmission, or by other means of transmission acceptable to the Transporter and Shipper, and all invoices shall be deemed delivered to Shipper when sent by Transporter in this manner. In addition, Transporter shall mail to Shipper a confirmation copy of each invoice, but the date this copy is delivered shall have no effect on the due date for payment of any invoice for accounting purposes. Invoices shall be due and payable within fifteen (15) Days of Shipper's receipt of the original invoice. All past due payments shall bear interest at one percent above the prime rate per annum announced by JPMorgan Chase & Co. ("Index Bank") as it may vary from time to time over the period beginning on the Day after the due date in question and ending on the date payment is sent by Shipper.

Invoices will be supported by adequate backup information to allow Shipper to review invoice calculations. In the event the delivered volumes reflected in a Transporter invoice differ from the volumes indicated by Shipper's check measuring equipment, then Shipper shall make payment to Transporter using the lower of the two volume totals, subject to adjustment as described in Section 9.2 below (following calculation of final volumes pursuant to Section 3.9). All taxes applicable to transportation shall be shown as a separate line item on each invoice for accounting purposes. Shipper shall make payment, at Transporter's option, either by mailing its check via U.S. mail to any address specified by Transporter, postage prepaid, or by bank transfer of funds to a bank account to be designated by Transporter.

9.2 Disputed Amounts

If Shipper disputes the amount of any invoice for any reason, Shipper shall notify Transporter of the dispute within ten (10) Business Days after receipt of the invoice. If Shipper fails to notify Transporter of the dispute within ten (10) Business Days, the disputed invoice shall be paid in full according to the terms of the Transportation Agreement, but the payment shall be subject to adjustment upon final resolution of the dispute, with any refund to bear interest at one percent over the prime rate announced by The Index Bank as it may vary from time to time over the period that Transporter has possession of the money. If Shipper notifies Transporter of the dispute within ten (10) Business Days of the receipt of the disputed invoice by Shipper, and if Shipper and Transporter are unable to resolve the dispute before the due date of the dispute invoice, Shipper shall pay only the undisputed portion of the disputed invoice on the due date. Shipper shall pay the portion of the disputed invoice, if any, determined to be owing to Transporter within fifteen (15) Days from the date the dispute is resolved together with interest on such amount at one percent (1.0%) over the prime rate announced by the Index Bank as it may vary from time to time, commencing fifteen (15) Days after the date the invoice is delivered to Shipper, and continuing until paid.

9.2 Failure of Index Bank

If the Index Bank (or any substitute Index Bank) no longer announces a prime rate or ceases to exist, Shipper shall designate a substitute Index Bank by notifying Transporter of the selection and the designation shall be effective as of the date the original Index bank ceased announcing a prime rate or ceased existence, as the case may be. A substitute Index Bank must be a national banking association that has capital and undivided profits of at least $100,000,000.00 and is located in a metropolitan area of the United States of America that has a population greater than 500,000.

Issued: August 13, 2010
Effective: August 13, 2010

11. SEGMENTATION OF CAPACITY

Any Shipper receiving firm transportation service may segment, to the extent operationally feasible, its contract path into two (2) or more discrete segments for its own use or in connection with a capacity release pursuant to Section 20 of the GT&C. If Shipper utilizes two (2) or more discrete pipeline segments, the sum of the quantities of Gas nominated at all Receipt Points or at all Delivery Points by the Shipper and, if applicable, the Releasing Shipper may exceed the TQ specified in the Transportation Agreement so long as the quantities nominated for transportation in a pipeline segment do not exceed the TQ applicable to the segment. Shipper may segment its contract path to forwardhaul and backhaul quantities of Gas to the same Receipt Point or to the same Delivery Point. In such a segmented transaction, the Shipper may exceed its TQ at that Receipt Point or Delivery Point and may nominate quantities of Gas in each segment up to Shipper's TQ assigned to such segment; provided, however, the quantities nominated to flow in the opposite direction of the flow of the contract path shall be considered to be outside the Shipper's contract path. If the Releasing Shipper and the Replacement Shipper nominate quantities of Gas in segments that overlap, the quantities shall be scheduled in accordance with the order set forth in section 6.1 above. If the quantities have equal priority and the sum of the quantities cannot be scheduled, the quantities shall be scheduled pro rata unless the Releasing Shipper specifies otherwise in its release notice.

Record: 20-GT&C Section 12
(Operational Flow Orders)

Issued: August 13, 2010
Effective: August 13, 2010

12. OPERATIONAL FLOW ORDERS

12.1 General - Transporter may issue OFOs to preserve the integrity of its Pipeline facilities, to ensure adequate operating pressures, to have adequate supplies in the Pipeline facilities, to assure adequate Transporter's Use Gas, to maintain firm services, and to optimize the operation of the system. Transporter may also issue OFOs on a not unduly discriminatory basis to respond to other unforeseen circumstances. To the extent possible, Transporter will Identify discrete Shipper(s) whose action(s) require Transporter to issue an OFO(s) and Transporter will limit the applicability of the OFO(s) to such Shipper(s). Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Transporter is unable to identify discrete Shipper(s) whose action(s) require issuance of an OFO, any OFO will be applicable to all Shippers on the affected Pipeline facilities.

12.2 Circumstances Under Which an OFO May be Issued -- Transporter may issue an OFO in any circumstance which would, in Transporter's reasonable judgment, impair Transporter's ability to receive or deliver Quantities of Gas in accordance with its service obligations including, but not limited to, when:

- (a) operating pressures are significantly less than or greater than normal system operating pressures despite Transporter's efforts to maintain normal pressures, and a further decline or increase in operating pressures would impair Transporter's ability to receive or deliver scheduled Quantities of Gas;
- (b) a Shipper fails to maintain receipts or deliveries as required in this Tariff;
- (c) unscheduled pipeline maintenance and repairs affect capacity.

12.3 Notices

If Transporter is required to issue an OFO, Transporter will issue a notice or email the notice to all affected Shippers, with an explanation of the necessity of such order, the Shipper(s) to which the order is directed, and the anticipated duration of such order. To the extent discrete Shipper(s) are not identified in any notice of an OFO, such order will be applicable to all Shippers. Transporter will issue or email any notice of an OFO as far in advance of the effective date/time of the OFO as is operationally feasible, subject to Transporter's need to protect the integrity of the pipeline facilities. (Negotiated Rates)

Issued: August 13, 2010
Effective: August 13, 2010

13. NEGOTIATED RATES

- 13.1 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Tariff, Transporter and Shipper may negotiate a rate for service under any Rate Schedule contained in this Tariff. Transporter's maximum Rate Schedule FT rate as shown on tariff record 5, Transporter's Statement of Rates and Charges ("Recourse Rate") is available for any Shipper that does not desire to negotiate a rate with Transporter.
- 13.2 A Negotiated Rate shall mean a rate for service, which may be less than, equal to or greater than Transporter's maximum Reservation Charge, if applicable, or Commodity Charge, as stated on Transporter's Statement of Rates and Charges for that service, shall not be less than the minimum rate, may be based on a rate design other than Straight Fixed Variable ("SFV"), and may include a minimum quantity. With respect to a Negotiated Rate which, when calculated on a 100% load factor basis, exceeds Transporter's maximum allocation of receipts and deliveries pursuant to Section 7, Shippers who have agreed to pay said Negotiated Rate would be considered to have paid the maximum Recourse Rate. For purposes of exercising rights to continue service pursuant to Section 22, the highest rate that a Shipper must match if it desires to retain all or a portion of its capacity and continue to receive firm service under the same Rate Schedule beyond the expiration date of such Firm Transportation Agreement is the maximum rate applicable to such service.
- 13.3 On or before the date service commences, Transporter will submit to the Commission a tariff record stating the exact legal name of the Shipper, the negotiated rate, the rate schedule, the Receipt Point(s), Delivery Point(s) and TQ. Unless Transporter executes and files a non-conforming Agreement, such tariff record will contain a statement that the negotiated rate Agreement does not deviate in any material aspect from the form of Transportation Agreement in the tariff for the applicable rate schedule.
- 13.4 Nothing in this Section 13 shall authorize Transporter or Shipper to negotiate terms and conditions of service.

Transporter is under no obligation to build, acquire and/or install service lateral pipelines, taps and metering facilities necessary to provide transportation service to any new or existing Shipper. Transporter may construct facilities on a non-discriminatory basis, provided:

- 17.1 Transporter determines in its sole discretion it has sufficient unutilized mainline transportation capacity to provide the service requested by the Shipper without impairing the operational integrity of its system, or Transporter has obtained certificate authorizations to expand its mainline capacity by an amount sufficient to allow Transporter to provide the requested service;

- 17.3 Unless otherwise agreed to by Transporter, Shipper agrees to reimburse or compensate Transporter, on mutually agreeable terms, for 100% of Transporter's construction, acquisition and/or installation costs (including any associated tax effects), as defined below, for facilities required to effect the service requested by Shipper. Transporter may waive this requirement at its discretion, on a not unduly discriminatory basis.

Transporter reserves the right to seek a waiver of the policy set forth herein, for good cause shown during any proceeding before the Commission instituted under section 7 of the Natural Gas Act.

Transporter may automatically change Releasing Shipper's nominations to zero for the Transportation Agreement under which capacity was released unless such nominations are adjusted or reconfirmed by the Releasing Shipper.
- (c) If Releasing Shipper releases its TQ for a geographic portion of the capacity reserved under its Transportation Agreement, Releasing Shipper may use its full TQ for its unreleased geographic portion of capacity.
- (d) When Releasing Shipper partially releases its capacity under a Transportation Agreement by releasing capacity between specific Receipt Points and Delivery Points or by releasing only a portion of its TQ, Releasing Shipper's Transportation Agreement shall be deemed to be modified in accordance with the release and Releasing Shipper may not utilize the capacity released during the term of the release.

Transporter shall not be required to: (i) execute a Transportation Agreement providing for service under the applicable Rate Schedule on behalf of any Shipper who fails to meet Transporter's standards for creditworthiness; or (ii) initiate service to a Shipper who fails to meet Transporter's standards for creditworthiness; or (iii) continue transportation service on behalf of any Shipper who is or has become insolvent or who, at Transporter's request, fails within a reasonable period to demonstrate creditworthiness.

- (b) For purposes herein, the determination of Shipper's creditworthiness shall be based upon the level of service requested by Shipper, Shipper's estimated financial strength as defined by Dun & Bradstreet and a composite credit appraisal of at least "3", also as defined by Dun & Bradstreet. If Shipper is not rated by Dun & Bradstreet, determination of a Shipper's creditworthiness shall be based upon a credit rating, as evaluated by Transporter, based upon the level of service requested by Shipper and financial analysis criteria and which are generally acceptable in the natural gas industry. If Transporter determines that Shipper does not have an acceptable rating set forth above, Shipper may, at its own expense, obtain a private rating from Dun & Bradstreet, or, as an alternative, request that an independent certified public accountant, mutually acceptable to Shipper and Transporter, prepare an equivalent evaluation based on the financial analysis criteria and ratios which are generally acceptable in the natural gas industry.
- (c) If a Shipper otherwise fails to establish creditworthiness as provided herein, Shipper may still receive service under the applicable Rate Schedule provided it furnishes and maintains for the term of the Transportation Agreement: (i) a written guarantee in a form satisfactory to Transporter from a third party which is creditworthy as determined above, (ii) an irrevocable standby letter of credit in an amount equal to the contract on a 100% load factor basis, for contracts with a term of twelve (12) months or longer the amount of the irrevocable standby letter of credit will not exceed twelve (12) months valuation, and contracts with a term less than twelve (12) months the irrevocable standby letter of credit will be the lesser of three (3) months valuation or the term of the contracts, (iii) a pre-payment in the amount equal to the contract on a 100% load factor basis, for contracts with a term of twelve (12) months

- (d) To permit Transporter to conduct a creditworthiness review, a Shipper shall, upon request by Transporter, render to Transporter: (i) a completed credit application, and (ii) complete financial statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles or, for non-U.S.-based Shippers, prepared in accordance with equivalent principles. Upon requesting transportation service, a Shipper must submit to Transporter a completed credit application unless it has previously submitted such to Transporter within the last twelve (12) months. If a Shipper elects to provide an irrevocable standby letter of credit or pre-payment, the completed credit application, and financial statement requirement is waived by Transporter. Transporter shall have the right to review a Shipper's creditworthiness on an ongoing basis and Shipper shall provide, upon Transporter's request, updated financial statements periodically in order to determine the continuing creditworthiness of a Shipper.
- (e) Transporter shall also consider the Shipper's past payment record with Transporter. Specifically, if Shipper is current with its payments to Transporter, and has not been delinquent in paying bills to Transporter over the past twelve (12) months (with good faith billing disputes excepted), the Shipper shall be deemed to have met the creditworthiness standard with respect to its existing transportation and storage contracts with Transporter. (Right of First Refusal)

22. RIGHT OF FIRST REFUSAL

22.1 If a Firm Transportation Agreement at the maximum recourse rate for a term of twelve (12) or more consecutive months of service contains no automatic extension provision, Shipper shall be entitled to a right of first refusal ("ROFR") to the renewal of its Transportation Quantity in accordance with the following procedures. Transporter shall post the capacity for bidding on its Web Site no later than 180 days prior to the expiration of Shipper's Firm Transportation Agreement. The capacity will remain posted on the Web Site for a minimum of 20 days ("ROFR Bidding Period"), with such posting containing the following information with respect to the capacity:

- (a) Daily Transportation Quantity;
- (b) Receipt and Delivery Points;
- (c) Maximum reservation charge;
- (d) Any applicable restrictions; and
- (e) The last day of the ROFR Bidding Period.

Transporter may require bidders to insure that offers are bona fide by providing financial assurances satisfactory to Transporter.

A Shipper's ROFR rights apply only when the Shipper is seeking to contract for its entire geographic historical Transportation Quantity, however a Shipper may elect to retain a portion of its Transportation Quantity subject to ROFR rights, in which case Transporter's pregranted abandonment authority would apply to the remainder of the service.

22.2 Upon conclusion of the ROFR Bidding Period, Transporter shall evaluate the bids in accordance with the procedures set forth in section 20, provided that the term used for purposes of the formula will be the lesser of the term proposed by the bidder or five years; and provided further that any bid rate higher than the maximum applicable recourse rate shall be deemed to be equal to the maximum applicable recourse rate. Transporter shall not be required to accept any bid at less than Transporter's maximum applicable recourse rate.

If Transporter receives a bid at its maximum applicable recourse rate, or if it accepts any bid below the maximum applicable recourse rate, Transporter shall, within five days of the close of the ROFR Bidding Period, inform Shipper of the offer to purchase capacity solicited pursuant to section 20 herein that Transporter intends to accept. Shipper shall have twenty-five (25) days after receiving notice to notify Transporter as to whether it will match the Highest Bid in terms of price, quantity and duration. If the Shipper elects to match the Highest Bid, it must execute a new Transportation Agreement that contains the terms of the Highest Bid; provided, however, that Shipper shall not be required to pay any rate higher than the maximum applicable recourse rate. If the Shipper fails to match the offer presented by Transporter, Transporter shall enter into a Firm Transportation Agreement with the Person submitting the competing offer.

- 22.4 If Transporter receives no bids at the maximum applicable recourse rate and Transporter refuses to accept a lower bid, Transporter may abandon service to Shipper, unless Shipper agrees to pay the maximum applicable recourse rate for a period of one year, or if Transporter and Shipper negotiate the terms and conditions of a Firm Transportation Agreement extension.

28. ARBITRATION

Any controversy arising out of or relating to any Agreement, if not resolved by the parties, may, by mutual agreement, be submitted to arbitration under the provisions of the Texas General Arbitration Act, Tex. Civ. Prac. & Rem. Code Section 171.001, et seq., as it may be amended from time to time and as modified by any Agreement. When the parties agree to arbitration, the controversy shall be determined by a board of three arbitrators to be selected as follows: either party may, at the time a board of arbitration is desired, notify the other of the name of any arbitrator of its choosing, and the other party shall, within ten (10) Days, notify the party desiring arbitration of the name of its arbitrator. The two arbitrators shall, within ten (10) Days after the notification of the identity of the second arbitrator, choose the third arbitrator. If they are unable to agree, the parties shall make application within two (2) Days to the Senior Judge of the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas, who (acting in an individual and not official capacity) shall appoint the third arbitrator. All arbitrators appointed pursuant to this Section 28 shall be third-party individuals qualified by education, knowledge, and experience to pass on the matters submitted for arbitration and shall not be employed by nor regularly receive remuneration from either party other than for arbitration services.

The board so constituted shall meet within ten (10) Days after the identity of the third arbitrator is determined, at which time the board shall set a reasonable schedule so that the parties may submit evidence and argument as they may see fit and be represented by counsel. The action of a majority of the members of the board shall govern and, unless otherwise agreed by both parties or otherwise set forth in any Agreement, their decision shall be rendered within seventy-two (72) hours from the conclusion of submission of the evidence, shall be in writing, and shall be final and binding on the parties. Each party shall pay the expense of the arbitrator selected by it and its own attorney's fees and costs associated with preparation of its case. All other costs of the arbitration shall be divided between the parties according to a method mutually agreed to by them at the outset of the arbitration proceeding and, failing such agreement, according to the decision of a majority of the members of the arbitration board, which shall likewise be final and binding on the parties. Without regard to any terms of any Agreement which may appear to be in conflict with this Section 28, neither party shall be entitled to recovery or reimbursement of costs incurred. Procedures not specified in the Agreement are established by the provisions of the Texas General Arbitration Act.

29. MISCELLANEOUS

- 29.1 Audit - Shipper and Transporter shall maintain books and records relating to their operation and performance under a Transportation Agreement in order that the provisions of the Agreement can adequately be administered. Shipper and Transporter shall have the right, during the term of such Agreement and within a two-Year period following its expiration, to enter upon the premises of the other party at reasonable times for the purposes of examining and auditing all books and records relating directly to performance under the Agreement. Audits shall be conducted at the sole expense of the party conducting the audit. Such party shall furnish the other party a report stating the results of any audit and the basis of those results. If any such report discloses that any error has occurred and that, as a result, an overpayment or an underpayment has been made, and if the other party disagrees with the report, both parties shall cooperate in an attempt to resolve any differences regarding the report. If any difference regarding an audit report is not resolved within thirty (30) Days following delivery of that report, Shipper and Transporter may, by mutual agreement, submit the controversy to arbitration, and failing such agreement, may use any legal means at their disposal to resolve the dispute. The amount of the underpayment or overpayment, as the case may be, shall promptly be paid to the party to whom it is owed by the other party upon final resolution of any difference.

No Transportation Agreement shall be interpreted to require Transporter to be bound by the provisions of any law unless that law itself provides for applicability to Transporter.
- 29.4 Cumulative Remedies - Pursuit, by either Transporter or Shipper, of any remedy available under this Tariff or any Transportation Agreement as may exist between Transporter and Shipper, shall not constitute a waiver of any other remedy that may be available. No waiver of any event of default or other breach of an Agreement

- 29.5 Limitation on Damages - In all situations arising out of a Transportation Agreement, Transporter and Shipper shall attempt to avoid and minimize the damages resulting from the act or omission of the other party. - 29.6 Ownership of Pipeline - Unless otherwise agreed, in the event that Transporter at any time during the term of a Transportation Agreement desires to sell its pipeline system, Transporter shall notify Shipper of the full particulars of any bona fide offer received by Transporter that Transporter is willing to accept. Shipper shall have an exclusive first option to purchase the system by providing to Transporter, within thirty (30) Days after receipt of the notice from Transporter, a written offer to purchase the system on the same terms or terms more favorable to Transporter. These rights to purchase shall not extend to the sale, transfer or other disposition of all or substantially all of Transporter's assets, or to a sale or disposition to another party being a wholly-owned subsidiary or entity holding more than fifty-percent (50%) of the stock of Transporter, or by merger, or by way of pledge or hypothecation for purposes of obtaining financing.
- 29.7 Calculations - The end results of all calculations under a Transportation Agreement shall be rounded to three (3) decimal places.
- 29.8 Entire Agreement - The Transportation Agreement, Rate Schedules, and the General Terms and Conditions contain the entire agreement of Transporter and Shipper with respect to the matters contained therein. No other agreement, statement, or promise made by any party, or by any employee, officer, or agent of any party, which is not contained in such materials shall be binding or valid. Provisions of the Agreement shall be construed as a whole according to their common meaning, and not strictly for or against either Transporter or Shipper. No amendment or modification of the Agreement shall be effective unless in writing and signed by both Transporter and Shipper.
